Maam Cross

Maam Cross is a settlement on a crossroads surrounded by mountains and lakes and is the starting point for many walks and drives around the Connemara National Park. The village is also a hub for the local community and is home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station. It is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike, offering a range of accommodation options and amenities.

Leenane

Leenane is a beautiful village located in the heart of Connemara National Park. It is known for its stunning scenery and is a great base for exploring the area. The village is situated on the shores of Killary Harbour and is surrounded by mountains and lakes. Leenane is home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station, making it a convenient place to base yourself for your Connemara adventure.

Killyleagh

Killyleagh is a coastal town located on the shores of Strangford Lough. It is a popular destination for tourists and offers a range of activities, including fishing, sailing, and hiking. Killyleagh is also known for its beautiful beaches and is a great place to relax and unwind.

Letterfrack

Letterfrack is a small village located on the shores of Lough Leane. It is a great base for exploring the Connemara National Park and is home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station. Letterfrack is also known for its beautiful beaches, making it a great place to relax and unwind.

Lettergeash & Glassilaun

Lettergeash and Glassilaun are small villages located on the shores of Lough Leane. They are a great place to explore the natural beauty of Connemara and are home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station. Lettergeash and Glassilaun are also known for their beautiful beaches, making them a great place to relax and unwind.

Tully and Renvyle

Tully is a quiet mountain village located on the shores of Lough Inagh. It is a great place to explore the natural beauty of Connemara and is home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station. Tully is also known for its beautiful beaches, making it a great place to relax and unwind.

Derryinver

Derryinver is a small village located on the shores of Lough Inagh. It is a great place to explore the natural beauty of Connemara and is home to several shops, restaurants, and a petrol station. Derryinver is also known for its beautiful beaches, making it a great place to relax and unwind.

Walking and Hiking

Connemara is a great place for hiking and walking, with many trails and routes to choose from. The area is home to several national parks and nature reserves, offering a range of opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts. The area is also home to several hiking trails, including the Connemara Loop and the Twelve Bens, which are popular with hikers and walkers alike.

Golf Courses

There are several golf courses located in the area, offering a range of opportunities for golfers. The area is home to several championship courses, including the Connemara Golf Club and the Galway Golf Club, making it a great destination for golfers.

Activities along the Connemara Loop

There are many attractions along the Connemara Loop, ranging from natural beauty to cultural heritage sites. The area is home to several stunning beaches and lakes, as well as several historical sites, such as the Galway Hooker and the Twelve Bens. The area is also home to several villages and towns, offering a range of opportunities for visitors to explore the local culture and history.